“Lord, I’d like students at the mission school to get Guide magazine,” prayed Laura Sámano, managing editor of Guide magazine. She longed to send the weekly magazine to Calexico Mission School middle schoolers. It seemed impossible: the dollar amount needed for 52 subscriptions discouraged her. “Jesus, I can’t afford to do this on my own, and I don’t think I can fundraise that much either,” Sámano prayed. “Please provide.” READ MORE

After a two-year wait, Pathway to Health, a humanitarian arm of the North American Division, held a free mega-clinic in Indianapolis at the Lucas Oil Stadium. From April 17-21, the clinic served more than 4,200 people in the metropolitan Indianapolis area. The goal of the event was to show people God’s love by serving as many people as they could with free medical, dental, vision, and lifestyle care. MORE

On May 3, Becket, a non-profit, public interest legal and educational institution, along with the GC Office of General Counsel and North American Division, announced that the case, Oakwood Adventist Academy v. Alabama High School Athletic Association, will move forward in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Alabama. This comes after OAA's historic winning season was cut short when AHSAA refused to let teams reschedule games to accommodate Sabbath. MORE

Return to Palau*, the story of a young, Seventh-day Adventist missionary family that moves to the idyllic island nation of Palau and suffers a shocking tragedy, will be screened at the International Christian Film Festival in Orlando, Florida, on Friday, May 6. Through recently uncovered archival footage and first-person accounts, Return to Palau tells an incredible story of survival, faith, and forgiveness. MORE

VIEWPOINTS

God Has a Plan

“Abraham had to leave things behind, not only physically, but emotionally. [He left] his friends, his relatives — he had to leave because had God had a plan for him. ... Maybe you wonder, Why did I come [here]? Why did God place me here? God has a plan for you. He's urging you to make changes in your life — not only physical changes, but also the spiritual changes.”

— Rudy Salazar, associate director for NAD Stewardship, during NAD staff worship on May 3, 2022
